

2018-2019 NINTH GRADE REGISTRATION INFORMATION

IMPORTANT DATES

- Tuesday, January 16th – Conifer High School counselors will be at West Jeff to meet with all eighth graders regarding registration for high school through history classes.
- Thursday, January 18th – 8th grade Curriculum Night at Conifer HS from 5:45 to 7:30 (see flyer)
- Monday, January 22nd – Students in MacLennan, Garthe, Reetz, and Wiechec’s Advise classes will be called down to the library to turn in their registration material to the high school counselors.
- Tuesday, January 23rd – Students from Fuchigami, Cushing, Fisher, and Williams’ Advise classes will be called down to the library to turn in registration material to the high school counselors.

Students must turn in:

- Their blue registration folder with all information filled out and signed by their parent or guardian
- A print-out of course selections that were entered into Campus
- A completed AP/Honors contract if the student plans to take AP or Honors classes in ninth grade.

COURSE PLACEMENT INFORMATION

- Math – Course placement will be determined based on teacher recommendation and data.
- Social Studies – Students may choose to take one semester each of US Government and World Geography OR two semesters of AP Human Geography. If a student takes Human Geography, they still can take a semester of US Government for elective credit.
- Science – Students may choose to take either Biology or Honors Biology. Students that are currently in Geometry and take Algebra 2 Honors as ninth graders may take Honors Chemistry in ninth grade.
- ELA – Students may choose to take ELA or Honors ELA.

Students may self-select into any honors class they choose. All core classes require a teacher signature.

OTHER INFORMATION

- All freshmen will have 7 total classes, including a study hall class.
- Students will be encouraged to take a world language; options are Spanish and French.
- All freshmen will have a seminar class (similar to Advise class).
- If you have any questions regarding registration, please contact your student’s ninth grade counselor.
