

CANYON COURIER

Veterans Day activities at area schools

Wednesday, November 18, 2020

Area schools typically plan elaborate Veterans Day celebrations each year, inviting area veterans to participate so students and staff can thank them for their service.

This year, Parmalee Elementary School and West Jefferson Middle School each conducted drive-thru Veterans Day activities to let veterans know they were not forgotten even during a pandemic.

Photos provided

[LEFT]

At West Jeff Middle School, LTC Barbara Wickham, a 27-year Army vet, wears U.S. Army jungle fatigues and dog tags to honor her late dad, Major William D. Jacobsen.

[BELOW]

Parmalee Elementary School pays its respects to veterans of the armed forces.

